

NOTICE OF MANDATORY ATTENDANCE OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IN CASES INVOLVING CHILDREN

Pursuant to Administrative Order #07-28-S mandatory attendance at an educational program (seminar) is established as a required policy in Seminole County for all parties in family law actions where there are minor children involved. In all domestic relations cases involving divorce, separate maintenance, paternity, change of custody or modification of visitation filed after that date, the parties shall attend and complete an approved four (4) hour seminar/program, within sixty (60) days of service of the petition upon respondent, and shall file a certificate of completion with the Clerk of the Circuit Court; otherwise, they shall bring the certificate with them to the next scheduled hearing. Except as authorized by the Administrative Order, no judge shall enter an order of final judgement, other than emergency orders, without proof of such compliance being received from the parties, and filed in the court file. All parties to whom this requirement applies, unless excused by the judge, shall be responsible for enrolling in and completing such course, and for paying the required fee as established by the providing agency by the party attending.

Agencies approved by the court for providing such education are:
